CITY OF RICHARDSON EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

FEE: City of Richardson employees insured under their Health Insurance Plan receive the initial, one-hour intake at no charge. Additional sessions are charged the co-pay of $20 per 50-minute session.

PAYMENT: Payment for the counseling session is due at the time of the appointment, unless prior arrangements have been made. Cash or personal checks made out to “The Counseling Place” are acceptable for payment. A returned check fee of $25 will be charged on any returned check. Any outstanding balances not paid within 60 days may be turned over to a collection agency. Limited personal information about you will be given out in order to collect outstanding balances.

CANCELLATION POLICY: Clients will be charged $35.00 for canceled appointments unless the counselor is notified 24 hours prior to the appointment time. These sessions cannot be billed to the City. Exceptions may be made for emergencies. If you are late for an appointment, the session will still end at the scheduled time, and you will be charged for a full session. Balances for failure to show or cancelled appointments must be paid before another session can be held.

CONFIDENTIALITY: For billing purposes to the City of Richardson, clients are identified by number only. For example, you may be client #02-25 indicating you are the 25th client of the year 2002. Sessions are billed to the City of Richardson Human Resources Office monthly by date of service to arrange for the balance due under our contract agreement. See the “Counseling Agreement Form” for additional information about confidentiality of records. Please discuss with your therapist any concerns you may have regarding confidentiality.

AGREEMENT: My counselor has reviewed the above policies with me and I understand these policies.

VICTIM ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

You are eligible for counseling because you have been referred by the Richardson Police Department under one or more of the following conditions:

- a) the Victim of a violent crime, or the family member of a Victim;
- b) an information report taken by the Police Department for Family Conflict, Family Disturbance, or Family Violence;
- c) an information report taken by the Police Department for suicidal thoughts or actions;
- d) a family member or close friend has died, and you were directly affected.

The Richardson Police Department contracts with The Counseling Place to provide up to six (6) sessions of counseling per family member involved, per report at NO CHARGE TO YOU. However, the police department does not pay for appointments cancelled without 24 hour notice or for your failure to show for a scheduled appointment. You will be charged a $35.00 fee for a late cancel or no-show.

Should The Counseling Place, at their discretion, file a CVC claim on your behalf for counseling services rendered, you are still responsible for payment of the account balance. If for any reason you become ineligible for CVC benefits or for charges not paid by CVC or your insurance carrier (if applicable) to The Counseling Place for your account, you are still responsible for payment of services received from The Counseling Place. You also agree, if The Counseling Place files a CVC claim for you, to provide your insurance information at the time of the filing and to use CVC funds that you received for the purpose for which they are intended.

The Counseling Place Counseling Fee Agreement Form

The Counseling Place fee for a 50-minute individual, family or marital counseling session is determined by the client's ability to pay. The fee scale is based on a sliding scale determined by annual gross family income.

Income	Fee per session	Income	Fee per session
$10,000 and under	$35	$50,000 – 59,999	$60
$10,000 – 19,999	$35	$60,000 – 69,999	$70
$20,000 – 29,999	$35	$70,000 – 79,999	$80
$30,000 – 39,999	$40	$80,000 – 89,999	$90
$40,000 – 49,000	$45	$90,000—99,999	$95
		$100,000 and up	$100

PAYMENT: Payment for the counseling session is due at the time of the appointment, unless prior arrangements have been made. Cash or personal checks made out to “The Counseling Place” are acceptable for payment. A returned check fee of $25.00 will be charged on any returned check. If you have an outstanding balance, you may be mailed a statement requesting payment from the agency. Any outstanding balances not paid within 60 days may be turned over to a collection agency. Limited personal information about you will be given out in order to collect outstanding balances.

INSURANCE BENEFITS: Some insurance companies will pay part of counseling fees, others will not. The Counseling Place will provide you a receipt you can send in to your insurance company for possible reimbursement. We will not accept your co-pay and file insurance for you. Health insurance companies often require that one of our counselors diagnose your mental health and indicate that you have an “illness” before they will agree to reimburse you. I will inform you of the diagnosis when I fill out the form. Any diagnosis made may become part of your permanent insurance records. Please check mental health benefits with your insurance prior to beginning counseling.

CANCELLATION POLICY: Clients will be charged $35.00 for canceled appointments unless the counselor is notified 24 hours prior to the appointment time. Exceptions may be made for emergencies. If you are late for an appointment, the session will still end at the scheduled time, and you will be charged for a full session. Balances for failure to show or a cancelled appointment must be paid before another session can be held.

THE COUNSELING PLACE

Counseling Agreement

Counseling Relationship: The counseling relationship is a professional relationship, not a social one. Sessions may be weekly or at intervals necessary to meet the collaborative treatment goals we have agreed upon. Contact will be limited to counseling sessions that you arrange at a predetermined time convenient for both of us. In case of emergency contact The Counseling Place by phone (972-744-4858), or another contact number provided by your therapist.

Records and Confidentiality: All of our communication becomes part of a clinical record which is the property of The Counseling Place. Adult files are disposed of seven years after the case is closed. Records of minors are disposed of seven years after the minor's eighteenth birthday. Communication between us is confidential except in the following instances:

- I determine you are a danger to yourself or others
- You disclose abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a child, elder, or disabled person
- I am court ordered to disclose information regarding your case
- You disclose sexual contact with another mental health professional
- You direct me in writing to release your records
- I am otherwise required by law to disclose such information

I may use your case records for the purpose of supervision and professional development with other counseling staff members at The Counseling Place. If I see you in public I will protect your confidentiality by acknowledging you only if you approach me first.

Outcome of Counseling: At any time you may initiate a discussion of possible positive or negative effects of entering, not entering, continuing or not continuing counseling. While benefits are expected from counseling, specific results are not guaranteed. Counseling is a personal exploration and may lead to changes in your life perspectives and decisions. These changes may affect significant relationships, your job, and/or your understanding of yourself. Some of these changes can be temporarily distressing. The exact nature of these changes cannot be predicted. Together we will work to achieve the best possible results for you.

Client Rights: Some clients need only a few sessions of counseling; others need several weeks or months. You may end our counseling relationship at any time, although I do ask that you do so in a final session with me. Counseling is a cooperative process between a client and therapist; please discuss any concerns you have openly with me so they can be addressed.

I assure you that my services will be rendered in a professional manner with accepted legal and ethical standards. If at any time you are dissatisfied with my services, please let me know. If I am unable to resolve your concerns, please contact The Counseling Place Executive Director or the appropriate licensing board (LPC, LMFT, LCDC, and LMSW). Numbers are posted in the waiting area.
